Bar Card No.

This is to acknowledge that you have completed the training requirement of Section 646(b), Subpart E, Part 2, Chapter XIII, Texas Probate Code, and you are hereby certified, with respect to this requirement, as eligible to be appointed an attorney ad litem in Texas courts. This letter shall serve as your certificate for purposes of this requirement, and the date of this letter shall be considered the date that the certificate was issued.

We have determined that the training you have completed meets the statutory training requirements set forth in Section 81.14, Section 3, Subchapter H, Chapter 81, Texas Government Code, and we have deemed this training to have been sponsored by the State Bar of Texas for the purpose of this certification.

Pursuant to the Probate Code, this certificate expires on the fourth anniversary of the date this certificate was issued. Prior to said expiration date, you will need to request re-certification from the State Bar if you wish to continue your eligibility for appointments as an attorney ad litem.

Sincerely,

Nancy R. Smith

TexasBarCLE
continuing legal education

Dear Attorney:

This is to certify that you registered for the TexasBarCLE program entitled, "Representing Texas Children in Abuse and Neglect Cases". Completion of this program fulfills the continuing legal education (CLE) training requirement that all attorneys ad litem in termination and conservatorship suits filed by the Department of Family and Protective Services (DFPS) complete three hours of CLE relating to child advocacy. By submitting this letter to the court (Do not send this affidavit to TexasBarCLE), you certify that you have reviewed the 3-hour program and its written materials. Therefore, with respect to this requirement, you claim that you are eligible to be appointed an attorney ad litem in termination and conservatorship suits filed by the DFPS in Texas courts.

This letter shall serve as your certificate for purposes of this requirement, and the date of this letter shall be considered the date that the certificate was issued.

This program was sponsored by the State Bar of Texas for the purpose of this training requirement.

AFFIDAVIT

I hereby swear or affirm that I did complete the course, "Representing Texas Children in Abuse and Neglect Cases," referenced above, and therefore I am eligible to be appointed as an attorney ad litem in termination and conservatorship suit proceedings in Texas.
